Licensing and Regulatory Boards and Commissions

Gaming Control Board

Administrative History

The rapid growth of the gambling industry necessitated more rules and regulations for control. A Legisla

The State Gaming Control Board is primarily empowered to investigate the qualifications of each license

Despite the increased authority and powers given to the Tax Commission and the Gaming Control Boar

Records Description Dates: 1955-1992 Volume: 58 c.f.

Minutes of Board Meetings 1955-1986 31 c.f.

More than fifty percent of the collection consists of minutes of Control Board meetings, the earliest datin

Meeting Transcripts 1987-1992 25 c.f.

The transcript of meetings is a more comprehensive record of the proceedings of the Board meetings. U

The files also include exhibits of the particular cases under consideration. Where these exhibits are conf

50th Anniversary of Legalized Gambling in Nevada 1931-1981 2 c.f.

"Silver Turns to Gold" is the title given to the program celebrating the 50th anniversary of legalized gamb

Nevada's Black Book

Gambling was legalized in Nevada in 1931. Initially control and licensing were the responsibility of the i

In consideration of problems related to the industry, Governor Grant Sawyer requested the 1959 Legisla

The Nevada Gaming Control Board devised a number of regulations which gaming establishments were

The first Black Book was issued March 29, 1960. It contained a letter issued by the Gaming Control Boa

The Nevada State Archives has versions from 1960, 1975, and 1986.

Black Book, 1960 (pdf)