Born in Millville, Shasta County, California on January 24, 1872 Denver Dickerson came to Nevada after serving in the Spanish American War. He was the clerk and recorder of White Pine County and later owned and edited the White Pine News and Ely Mining Expositor. After his term as Acting-Governor, Dickerson was appointed Superintendent of the State Police and Warden of the State Prison. He served as head of the state prison until his death on November 28, 1925.
