Edward Carville was born on a ranch in Mound Valley, Nevada, May 14, 1885. He established a law practice in Elko and served as District Attorney and District Judge before becoming governor in 1939. In 1945 he resigned to be appointed U.S. Senator by Acting-Governor Vail Pittman, after the death of James Scrugham. After serving the remainder of the term, Carville practiced law in Reno until his death June 27, 1956.
