

- Reno-Sparks Indian Colony Archives - Information about the archives and government of the Reno-Sparks Indian Colony.

- National Archives microfilm of Federal records about Nevada - Microfilmed historic records of the U.S. Government related to Nevada. Includes records of Nevada and Utah Territorial government, the Office of Indian Affairs, Indian census rolls, Sarah Winnemucca, U.S. Population Censuses for Nevada, Nevada based military correspondence, and Nevada Civil War-era service files. Dates range from 1850-1940; bulk dates are 1860-1880. Copies of these microfilms are in the Nevada State Library.

- Sarah Winnemucca
- Stewart Indian School
- Great Basin Indian Archive
- Great Basin Indians Manuscript Collections - Special Collections, University of Nevada, Reno
- Southern Paiutes - Marjorie Barrick Museum, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
- Nevada Test Site Oral History Project - A University of Nevada, Las Vegas project, this is a comprehensive program dedicated to documenting, preserving and disseminating the remembered past of persons affiliated with and affected by the Nevada Test Site during the the era of nuclear testing.
- Howard Hickson's Histories - Stories about northeastern Nevada history.
- The Nevada Observer Reading Room - Scanned, historic documents related to Nevada history, including state and county histories, travel narratives, literature, and the U.S. Senate Kefauver Crime Committee reports.

Photo credit: Pyramid Lake, home of the Pyramid Lake Paiute Tribe, n.d. Courtesy of the Nevada State Archives, PLA-0087.

